JADD Annual Hope & Remembrance 21 November 2019

We meet in Remembrance
This time of year
In remembrance of someone special
That we've lost but once held so dear
And remember we do in our own separate ways
Keeping their memory alive day after day
And the hope in our hearts
When we think of you each day
Is that wherever we go or wherever we are You're' looking down upon us
With a big smile on your face
Knowing that we'll be together again Someday
